<sup>3</sup> Findings of fact shall be construed as conclusions of law and conclusions of law shall be construed as findings of fact to the fullest extent of the law. See FED. R. BANKR. P. 7052.

B. Statutory and Rule Predicates. The statutory and other legal predicates for the relief requested in the Motion and for the approvals and authorization herein are sections 105(a), 305(a), 349, 363 and 1112(b) of the Bankruptcy Code, Bankruptcy Rules 1017, 2002, 6004, 9007, 9008 and 9014 and Local Rules 1017-2, 2002-1, 6004-1 and 9006-1.

C. Final Order. This Sale Order constitutes a final order within the meaning of 28 U.S.C. § 158(a). Notwithstanding Bankruptcy Rules 6004(h) and 6006(d), and to the extent necessary under Bankruptcy Rule 9014 and rule 54(b) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedures, as made applicable by Bankruptcy Rule 7054, this Court expressly finds that there is no just reason for delay in the implementation of this Sale Order, and expressly directs entry of judgment as set forth herein and authorizes Seller's entry into, and performance under, the Agreement and Seller's, FTX Japan's and FTX Trading Ltd.'s entry into, and performance under, the Release Agreement (as defined in the Agreement) without regard to any stay or delay in their implementation.

D. Sale Notice. As shown by the affidavits of service filed with this Court and the representations or proffers made on the record at the Sale Hearing, (a) the Debtors have provided due, good, proper, timely, reasonable, adequate, appropriate and sufficient notice of, and sufficient opportunity to object to, the Motion and the relief requested therein, including, among other things, the Sale Transaction, the dismissal of FTX Japan's Chapter 11 Case effective upon the transfer of the Interests and the entry of this Sale Order in compliance with all applicable requirements of the Bankruptcy Code, the Bankruptcy Rules and the Local Rules, (b) such notice was adequate and sufficient under the circumstances of these Chapter 11 Cases, and (c) no other or further notice is necessary or shall be required.

E. Opportunity to Object. A fair and reasonable opportunity to object or be heard regarding the relief granted by this Sale Order has been afforded to all interested parties.

F. No Collusion. Purchaser is not an “insider” of the Debtors as that term is defined in section 101(31) of the Bankruptcy Code. The Agreement and the Sale Transaction were negotiated, proposed and entered into by Seller and Purchaser without collusion or fraud, in good faith and from arm’s-length bargaining positions, and are substantively and procedurally fair to all parties. Neither the Debtors nor Purchaser has engaged in any conduct that would cause or permit the Agreement or the consummation of the Sale Transaction to be avoided, or costs or damages to be imposed under section 363(n) of the Bankruptcy Code, and accordingly neither the Debtors nor Purchaser has violated section 363(n) of the Bankruptcy Code by any action or inaction. Specifically, Purchaser has not acted in a collusive manner with any person and the Closing Consideration (as defined in the Agreement) was not controlled by any agreement among bidders. The Sale Transaction may not be avoided, and no damages may be assessed against Purchaser or any other party under section 363(n) of the Bankruptcy Code or any other applicable bankruptcy or non-bankruptcy law.

G. Good Faith of Purchaser. Purchaser is purchasing the Interests in good faith and for value, and is a good-faith buyer within the meaning of section 363(m) of the Bankruptcy Code. Purchaser is therefore entitled to all of the protections afforded under section 363(m) and any other applicable or similar bankruptcy or non-bankruptcy law, and otherwise has proceeded in good faith in all respects in connection with this proceeding, the Sale Transaction and the Agreement, in that, inter alia: (a) Purchaser recognized that the Debtors were free to deal with any other party interested in acquiring the Interests; (b) Purchaser in no way induced or caused the filing of these Chapter 11 Cases by the Debtors; (c) all payments to be made, and all other material agreements or arrangements entered into or to be entered into, by Purchaser in connection with the Sale Transaction have been disclosed; (d) Purchaser has not violated section 363(n) of the Bankruptcy Code by any action or inaction; (e) the negotiation and execution of the Agreement were at arm's length and in good faith, and at all times each of the Purchaser and Seller were represented by competent counsel of their choosing; and (f) the Purchaser has not acted in a collusive manner with any person. Purchaser will be acting in good faith within the meaning of section 363(m) in closing the transactions as found and authorized by this Sale Order and contemplated by the Agreement.

H. Highest and Best Offer. The Debtors and their advisors, including, without limitation, Perella Weinberg Partners LP, have appropriately marketed the Interests, and a reasonable opportunity has been given to any interested party to make a higher or better offer for the Interests. No other person or entity or group of entities has offered to purchase the Interests for higher or otherwise better value to the Debtors' estates than Purchaser. The offer to purchase the Interests made by Purchaser, under the terms and conditions set forth in the Agreement: (a) was made in good faith; (b) is the highest or otherwise best offer obtained for the Interests and will provide a greater recovery for the Debtors' estates than would be provided by any other reasonably available alternative; (c) is for fair, adequate and sufficient consideration that constitutes reasonably equivalent value for the Interests being conveyed to Purchaser; (d) is fair and reasonable; (e) is in the best interests of the Debtors' estates; and (f) would not have been made by Purchaser absent the protections afforded to Purchaser by this Sale Order.

I. Reasonable Exercise of the Debtors' Business Judgment. The Debtors' determination that the Sale Transaction, pursuant to the Agreement, provides the highest or otherwise best offer for the Interests, and their related decision to sell the Interests, constitute a reasonable exercise of the Debtors' business judgment. The facts and circumstances described in the Motion and the evidence adduced in connection with the Sale Hearing demonstrate the Debtors' business judgment to sell the Interests to Purchaser at this time, and the Debtors have articulated sound business reasons for consummating the Sale Transaction and for selling the Interests outside of a chapter 11 plan. Moreover, the sale of the Interests outside of a chapter 11 plan pursuant to the Agreement neither impermissibly restructures the rights of the Debtors' creditors nor dictates the terms of any chapter 11 plan. The Sale Transaction does not constitute a sub rosa chapter 11 plan. It is a reasonable exercise of the Debtors' business judgment to execute, deliver and consummate the Sale Transaction, subject to this Sale Order.

J. Fair Consideration. The Closing Consideration provided by Purchaser pursuant to the Agreement (a) is fair and reasonable, (b) constitutes reasonably equivalent value (as those terms are defined in each of the Uniform Fraudulent Transfer Act, Uniform Fraudulent Conveyance Act and section 548 of the Bankruptcy Code) and (c) constitutes fair consideration under the Bankruptcy Code and under the laws of the United States, any state, territory, possession or the District of Columbia.

K. No Successor or Other Derivative Liability. As a result of any action taken in connection with the Sale Transaction, the Agreement, or this Sale Order: (a) Purchaser is not a successor to, mere continuation of, alter ego of, or substantial continuation of the Debtors or their estates and there is no continuity of enterprise between Purchaser and the Debtors; and (b) Purchaser shall not be deemed to be holding itself out to the public as a continuation of the Debtors based on the Sale Transaction, this Sale Order or the Agreement. Purchaser is not, and shall not be, considered a successor in interest to any of the Debtors or their estates, by reason of any theory of law or equity, and the Sale Transaction, this Sale Order or the Agreement do not amount to, separately or together, a consolidation, succession, merger, or de facto merger of Purchaser and the Debtors and/or the Debtors' estates. Purchaser would not have entered into the Agreement if the sale of the Interests were not made free and clear of any successor liability of Purchaser. Except as expressly provided for in this Sale Order or the Agreement, Purchaser shall not have any liability, responsibility or other obligation to the Debtors or their estates arising under or related to the Interests prior to the Closing. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, Purchaser shall not, by virtue of the Sale Transaction, be liable for any claims against the Debtors or any of their predecessors or affiliates, and Purchaser shall have no successor or vicarious liabilities of any kind or character, including, but not limited to, under any theory of antitrust, environmental (subject to paragraph 18 below), successor or transferee liability, securities law, tax law, labor law, products liability law, employment law, pension law, ERISA law, de facto merger, mere continuation, alter ego, veil piercing, escheat, continuity of enterprise or substantial continuity, or other applicable law, rule or regulation, or theory of liability, whether known or unknown as of the Closing Date, now existing or hereafter arising, whether fixed or contingent, whether asserted or unasserted, whether legal or equitable, whether liquidated or unliquidated, including, but not limited to, liabilities on account of warranties, environmental liabilities (subject to paragraph 18 below) and any taxes arising, accruing or payable under, out of, in connection with, or in any way relating to the operation of any of the Interests prior to the Closing (collectively, the "Successor or Other Liabilities").

L. Corporate Power and Authority. As set forth in Sections 2.1(a) and 2.2(a) of the Agreement, each of Purchaser and Seller (a) has the requisite power and authority to enter into, execute and deliver the Agreement and all other documents contemplated thereby, (b) has (with respect to Seller, upon entry of this Sale Order) the requisite power and authority to perform all of the obligations to be performed under the Agreement, including the Sale Transaction, and (c) has taken all corporate action and formalities necessary to authorize, execute and deliver the Agreement and the consummation of the Sale Transaction. Seller's sale of the Interests has been duly and validly authorized by all necessary corporate action. No consents or approvals, other than this Sale Order and those expressly provided for in the Agreement, are required for Seller to consummate the Sale Transaction.

M. No Fraudulent Conveyance or Fraudulent Transfer Claims. The Agreement was not entered into for the purpose of hindering, delaying or defrauding creditors under the Bankruptcy Code or under the laws of the United States, any state, territory, possession or the District of Columbia. Neither the Debtors nor Purchaser are entering into the Sale Transaction fraudulently for the purpose of statutory and common law fraudulent conveyance and fraudulent transfer claims.

N. Title to Assets. The transfer of the Seller's rights, titles and interests to the Interests to Purchaser will be, as of the Closing (as defined in the Agreement), a legal, valid and effective transfer of such rights, titles and interests in the Interests, which transfer vests or will vest Purchaser with all rights, titles and interests of the Seller to the Interests free and clear of any lien (statutory or otherwise), charge, pledge, mortgage, lease, easement, hypothecation, usufruct, deed of trust, security interest, option, right of use, first offer or first refusal, servitude, restrictive covenant or condition, encroachment, claim, interest, restriction or any other encumbrance of any kind ("Liens"), other than restrictions on transfer arising solely under applicable federal and state securities laws or any applicable laws and any transfer restrictions set forth in the FTX Japan's organizational documents ("Permitted Encumbrances"). The Agreement is a valid and binding contract between Seller and Purchaser and shall be enforceable according to its terms.

O. Satisfaction of Section 363(f) Standards. The conditions of section 363(f) of the Bankruptcy Code have been satisfied in full, and upon entry of this Sale Order, the Debtors are authorized to transfer all of their rights, titles and interests in and to the Interests free and clear of any interest in the property, other than Permitted Encumbrances. The Debtors may sell the Interests free and clear of all Liens because, in each case, one or more of the standards set forth in section 363(f)(1)-(5) of the Bankruptcy Code has been satisfied. Each holder with a Lien on the Interests to be transferred pursuant to the Agreement: (a) has, subject to the terms and conditions of this Sale Order, consented to the Sale Transaction or is deemed to have consented; (b) could be compelled in a legal or equitable proceeding to accept money satisfaction of such Lien; or (c) otherwise falls within one or more of the other subsections of section 363(f) of the Bankruptcy Code. Holders of Liens against the Debtors, their estates or the Interests who did not object, or who withdrew their objections, to the Sale Transaction or the Motion, with respect to the sale of the Interests (except with respect to Permitted Encumbrances), are deemed to have consented pursuant to section 363(f)(2) of the Bankruptcy Code. All other holders of Liens are adequately protected by having their Liens, if any, in each instance against the Debtors, their estates or the Interests, attach to the net cash proceeds of the Sale Transaction ultimately attributable to the Interests in which such creditor alleges a Lien, in the same order of priority, with the same validity, force and effect that such Liens had prior to the Sale Transaction, subject to any claims and defenses the Debtors and their estates may possess with respect thereto.

P. Transfer of the Interests Free and Clear of Liens. Purchaser would not have entered into the Agreement and would not consummate the Sale Transaction if the sale of the Interests to Purchaser were not free and clear of all Liens (other than Permitted Encumbrances), or if Purchaser or any of the Purchaser Parties (as defined in the Agreement) would, or in the future could, be liable for any such Lien. The Closing Consideration to be provided under the Agreement reflects Purchaser's reliance on this Sale Order to provide it, pursuant to sections 105(a) and 363 of the Bankruptcy Code, with title to, interest in and possession of the Interests free and clear of all Liens (other than Permitted Encumbrances). Not transferring the Interests free and clear of all Liens (other than Permitted Encumbrances) would adversely impact the Debtors' efforts maximize the value of the estates, and the transfer of the Interests other than pursuant to a transfer that is free and clear of all Liens (other than Permitted Encumbrances) would be of substantially less benefit to the Debtors' estates.

Q. Waiver of Bankruptcy Rules 6004(h) and 6006(d). Good and sufficient reasons for approval of the Agreement and the Sale Transaction have been articulated. The Debtors have demonstrated both (a) good, sufficient and sound business purposes and justifications and (b) compelling circumstances for the Sale Transaction other than in the ordinary course of business, pursuant to section 363(b) of the Bankruptcy Code before, and outside of, a chapter 11 plan, in that, among other things, the immediate consummation of the Sale Transaction is necessary and appropriate to maximize the value of the Debtors' estates. Accordingly, there is cause to waive or lift the stay contemplated by Bankruptcy Rules 6004(h) and 6006(d) with respect to the Sale Transaction. To maximize the value of the Interests, it is essential that the Sale Transaction occur within the time constraints set forth in the Agreement. Time is of the essence in consummating the Sale Transaction and the Debtors and Purchaser intend to close the Sale Transaction as soon as practicable. Given all of the circumstances of these Chapter 11 Cases and the adequacy and fair value of the Closing Consideration under the Agreement, the proposed Sale Transaction should be approved.

R. Compliance of the Sale Transaction with the Bankruptcy Code. The consummation of the Sale Transaction is legal, valid and properly authorized under all applicable provisions of the Bankruptcy Code, including, without limitation, sections 105(a), 363(b), 363(f), 363(m), and all of the applicable requirements of such sections have been complied with in respect of the transaction.

S. Dismissal of FTX Japan's Chapter 11 Case upon the Transfer of the Interests. The Debtors have demonstrated that there is cause to dismiss FTX Japan's Chapter 11 Case upon the transfer of the Interests and that such dismissal is in the best interest of the creditors and the Debtors' estates.

T. Personally Identifiable Information. The Sale Transaction does not involve the sale of any personally identifiable information. Thus, the appointment of a consumer privacy ombudsman pursuant to section 363(b)(1) or section 332 of the Bankruptcy Code is not required with respect to the Sale Transaction.

U. Legal and Factual Bases. The legal and factual bases set forth in the Motion and the evidence adduced in connection with the Sale Hearing establish just cause for the relief granted herein. Entry of this Sale Order is in the best interests of the Debtors and their estates.

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED THAT:

The automatic stay imposed by section 362 of the Bankruptcy Code is modified solely to the extent necessary to implement the preceding sentence and the other provisions of this Sale Order; provided, however, that this Court shall retain exclusive jurisdiction over any and all disputes with respect thereto.

On the Closing Date, each creditor is authorized and directed to execute such documents and take all other actions as may be necessary to release Liens (other than Permitted Encumbrances) in or on the Interests, if any, as provided for herein, as such Liens may have been recorded or may otherwise exist.

13. All persons and entities are hereby forever prohibited and enjoined from taking any action that would adversely affect or interfere (a) with the ability of the Debtors and/or Seller to sell and transfer the Interests to Purchaser in accordance with the terms of the Agreement and this Sale Order, and (b) with the ability of Purchaser to acquire and take possession of the Interests in accordance with the terms of the Agreement and this Sale Order.

14. Purchaser has given substantial consideration under the Agreement for the benefit of the Debtors and their estates. The Closing Consideration given by Purchaser shall constitute valid and valuable consideration for the sale being free and clear of any potential liens, claims, interests, and encumbrances, including any Liens, as to the Interests pursuant to this Sale Order, except with respect to the Permitted Encumbrances, and free and clear of any potential claims of successor liability against the Purchaser. F. Other Provisions

18. Nothing in this Sale Order or the Agreement releases, nullifies, precludes or enjoins the enforcement of any police or regulatory liability to a governmental unit that any entity would be subject to as the post-sale owner or operator of property following the Closing. In addition, nothing in this Sale Order divests any tribunal of any jurisdiction it may have under police or regulatory law, including the jurisdiction to interpret this Sale Order or to adjudicate any defense asserted under this Sale Order.

19. Further, nothing in this Sale Order or Agreement authorizes the transfer or assignment of any governmental license, permit, registration, authorization or approval, or the discontinuation of any obligation thereunder, if such transfer or assignment would not be in compliance with all applicable legal requirements and approvals under police or regulatory law as appropriate.

20. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the Motion, this Sale Order, or any findings announced at the Sale Hearing, nothing in the Motion, this Sale Order, or announced at the Sale Hearing constitutes a finding under the federal securities laws as to whether crypto tokens or transactions involving crypto tokens are securities, and the right of the United States Securities and Exchange Commission to challenge transactions involving crypto tokens on any basis are expressly reserved.

21. The Closing Consideration provided by Purchaser to the Debtors pursuant to the Agreement for the Interests (a) is fair and reasonable, (b) constitutes reasonably equivalent value (as those terms are defined in each of the Uniform Fraudulent Transfer Act, Uniform Fraudulent Conveyance Act, its equivalents, and section 548 of the Bankruptcy Code) and (c) constitutes fair consideration under the Bankruptcy Code and under the laws of the United States, any state, territory, possession or the District of Columbia.

22. The sale of the Interests does not include the sale of any causes of action held by any of the Debtors against any person or entity, including but not limited to causes of action against Samuel Bankman-Fried, Gary Wang, Nishad Singh, Caroline Ellison or any person known by the Debtors to have a familial relationship with any of the foregoing persons.

23. The Sale Transaction is undertaken by Purchaser without collusion and in good faith, within the meaning of section 363(m) of the Bankruptcy Code, and accordingly, the reversal or modification on appeal of the authorization provided herein to consummate the Sale Transaction shall not affect the validity of the Sale Transaction, unless such authorization and such Sale Transaction were duly stayed pending such appeal at the time of the Closing. Purchaser is a good faith buyer within the meaning of section 363(m) of the Bankruptcy Code and, as such, is entitled to the full rights, benefits, privileges and protections of section 363(m) of the Bankruptcy Code. The Debtors and Purchaser will be acting in good faith if they proceed to consummate the Sale Transaction at any time after the entry of this Order.

24. As a good faith purchaser of the Interests, Purchaser has not entered into an agreement with any other potential bidders, and has not colluded with any other bidders, potential bidders, or any other parties interested in the Interests, and therefore, neither the Debtors nor any successor-in-interest to the Debtors' estates shall be entitled to bring an action against Purchaser, and the Sale Transactions may not be avoided pursuant to section 363(n) of the Bankruptcy Code, and no party shall be entitled to any damages or other recovery pursuant to section 363(n) in respect of the Agreement or Sale Transaction.

25. Nothing contained in any plan of reorganization or liquidation, or order of any type or kind entered in (a) these Chapter 11 Cases, (b) any subsequent Chapter 7 case into which these Chapter 11 Cases may be converted or (c) any related proceeding subsequent to entry of this Sale Order, shall conflict with or derogate from the provisions of the Agreement or the Release Agreement or the terms of this Sale Order. In the event there is a conflict between this Sale Order and the Agreement (or any ancillary agreements executed in connection therewith), this Sale Order shall control and govern. Likewise, all of the provisions of this Sale

Order are non-severable and mutually dependent. To the extent that this Sale Order is inconsistent with any prior order or pleading with respect to the Motion in these Chapter 11 Cases, the terms of this Sale Order shall control.

26. Pursuant to Bankruptcy Rules 7062, 9014, 6004(h) and 6006(d), this Sale Order shall be effective and enforceable immediately upon entry, the Debtors and Purchaser are authorized to close the Sale Transaction immediately upon entry of this Sale Order, and the 14-day stay provided in Bankruptcy Rules 6004(h) and 6006(d) is hereby expressly waived and shall not apply.

27. The failure specifically to include any particular provision of the Agreement in this Sale Order shall not diminish or impair the effectiveness of such provision, it being the intent of this Court that the Agreement be authorized and approved in its entirety; provided, however, that this Sale Order shall govern if there is any inconsistency between the Agreement (including all ancillary documents executed in connection therewith) and this Sale Order.

28. The Agreement and any related agreements, documents or other instruments may be modified, amended or supplemented by the parties thereto and in accordance with the terms thereof, without further order of this Court, provided that any such modification, amendment or supplement does not have a material adverse effect on the Debtors' estates or any of the Debtors' creditors. If the Agreement is modified, the Debtors shall file the modified version with the Court.

29. Pursuant to the terms of and subject to the conditions contained in the Agreement, following the Closing, Seller, its successors and assigns and any trustee in bankruptcy, and, in each case, any of their respective representatives, will have access to the books and records related to the Interests subject to the terms of, and for the specified purposes set forth in, and in accordance with, Section 3.7 of the Agreement.

30. This Court shall retain jurisdiction to, among other things, interpret, implement and enforce the terms and provisions of this Sale Order and the Agreement, all amendments thereto and any waivers and consents thereunder and each of the agreements executed in connection therewith to which the Debtors are a party or which has been assigned by the Debtors to Purchaser, and to adjudicate, if necessary, any and all disputes concerning or relating in any way to the Sale Transaction.

31. The Agreement and the Release Agreement shall be in full force and effect, regardless of any Debtor's lack of good standing in any jurisdiction in which such Debtor is formed or authorized to transact business.

32. No bulk sales law, bulk transfer law or any similar law of any state or other jurisdiction (including those relating to taxes other than Transfer Taxes (as defined in the Agreement)) shall apply to the Debtors' conveyance of the Interests or this Sale Order.

33. The appointment of a consumer privacy ombudsman pursuant to section 363(b)(1) or section 332 of the Bankruptcy Code is not required with respect to the Sale Transaction.

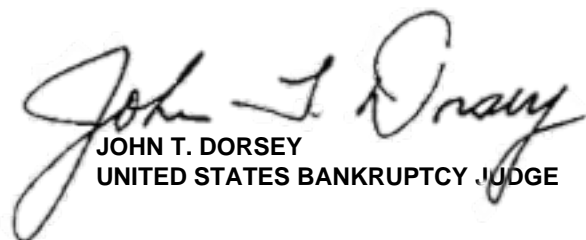

34. Nothing in this Sale Order shall affect the obligations, if any, of the Debtors, Purchaser, and/or any transferee or custodian to maintain all books and records that are subject to any governmental subpoena, document preservation letter, or other investigative request from a governmental agency.

35. Nothing in this Sale Order shall be deemed to waive, release, extinguish or estop the Debtors or their estates from asserting or otherwise impairing or diminishing any right (including any right of recoupment), claim, chose in action, cause of action, defense, offset or counterclaim in respect of any asset that is not the Interests, except as provided in the Release Agreement.

36. All time periods set forth in this Sale Order shall be calculated in accordance with Bankruptcy Rule 9006(a).
